The "case" against Microsoft was, is and shall forever be a sham. The "problem" is that Gates and Microsoft got lucky and their competitors didn't. MS was in the right place at the right time and did the right things... the bozo's who are suing them didn't luck out.

Let the market decide if Microsoft is a company that the public wants to do business with. Microsoft does not "own" the market any more than it owns the souls of it's dustomers. People choose Microsoft products becasue, despite MS's faults, the products are what it's customers want and need and are reasonably priced.

Let the government do what it does best - nothing!!
